MISSION...

The National Association of Flood and Stormwater Management Agencies is an organization of metropolitan, state, county, city, and special district agencies with responsibility for flood protection, stormwater, and/or floodplain management programs.

NAFSMA's purpose is to advocate public policy and encourage technologies in watershed management that focus on issues relating to flood protection, stormwater and floodplain management in order to enhance the ability of its members to protect lives, property, and economic activity from the adverse impacts of storm and flood waters.

HOTEL INFORMATION

NAFSMA members and colleagues are urged to make reservation at our 2008 conference site hotel as soon as possible. This year's Annual Meeting will be held at The Meritage Resort, a beautiful new property in Napa, California. To make reservations, please call 707-251-1900 and ask for NAFSMA's special Annual Meeting rate: $215 plus taxes available Sunday through Thursday. Please feel free to call Christina Erling in the national office at 202-218-4157 if you have questions.

CONFERENCE INFORMATION

NAFSMA's 2008 Annual Meeting will include a special NPDES Stormwater Workshop, information of critical pending legislation including the Water Resources Development Act of 2008, wetlands regulatory legislation, water infrastructure funding bills, National Flood Insurance Program reform bills and others. Issues relating to levee certification, levee safety and other flood risk management issues will also be covered. Also included in NAFSMA's 30th Anniversary conference will be a special session on climate change issues as they relate to flood and stormwater management, as well as a special session on map modernization.
